

PVC Schedule 40 IPS Perforated

- Product manufactured with one integral solvent-weld bell standard per length
- Standard overall pipe length is 10' or 20'
- Standard color is white
- Perforated Schedule 40 is manufactured with  $\frac{5}{8}$  - inch holes, 5-inches on center and is available in 2-hole and 3-hole configurations.

| 10' Catalog Part Number | 20' Catalog Part Number | Perf Pattern | Trade Size | Dimensions (inches) |             | Minimum Wall (inches) | Approximate Weight Per 100' (lbs) | Standard Crate Quality (feet) |      |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|--------------|------------|---------------------|-------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|------|
|                         |                         |              |            | OD (avg)            | ID (approx) |                       |                                   |                               |      |
| 5440010FH               | 5440020FH               | 4-8          | 4          | 4.500               | 4.00        | 0.237                 | 205                               | 570                           | 1140 |
| 544010FH468             | 544020FH468             | 4-6-8        |            |                     |             |                       |                                   |                               |      |
| 5460010FH               | 5460020FH               | 4-8          | 6          | 6.625               | 6.03        | 0.280                 | 361                               | 260                           | 520  |
| 5460010FH468            | 5460020FH468            | 4-6-8        |            |                     |             |                       |                                   |                               |      |